Review of Trade.

New York March 21.—R G. Dun's to-morrow will say:
General business conditions continue in the main, excellent. The volume of trade, both domestic and foreign, is heavy, although nurchases are mostly for immediate requirements. While there is less strain in the European improved, the monetary outlook abroad is still a matter of some concern. This export gold, and since the beginning of the year has sent abroad about dise exports over imports, however, is neavily in our favor, amounting in February to over 114.00,000.

A short time after being in Lake Huron, Harrison, together with his daughter, Georgie, the eldest of the four, and two companions were drowned while crossing Thunder Bay.

Mrs. Harrison, accompanied by the three daughters, then returned to Washington and made their home there, the mother obtaining a position in one of the government departments. Practically nothing had since been heard of the family until the report of the dath of Rear Admiral Eaton.

However, comparatively few citizens was a mere child when her parents left Alexandria. Since then she never returned to this city, nor had any of the members of the family.

Mrs. Eaton has a number of first cousins in this city, all of whom are prominent business men.
